Enhancing Elementary Greatness in Our Community

Introducing The Leader in Me Process

For many years, FranklinCovey has been helping schools apply leadership principles. The Leader in Me documents the success of AB Combs Elementary in Raleigh, North Carolina using The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People® to improve their culture with great results for their students.

On November 17, special guests from Franklin Covey will present The 7 Habits with applications for teens, for teachers, for administrators and for the community.

Sean Covey

Author of The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens®, The 6 Most Important Decisions You'll Ever Make®, and The 7 Habits of Happy Kids™ and senior vice president of Innovations and Products at FranklinCovey. Sean has experience as a leader as a starting quarterback in college, as a teacher and father.

Muriel Summer

The principal of AB Combs Elementary School in The Leader in Me, Muriel is a dedicated educator who works tirelessly and successfully for the success of her school and students everywhere.

Gary McGuey

As a former teacher and coach, Gary has contributed to FranklinCovey by developing 7 Habits Teen materials and helping clients apply the 7 Habits and Leadership principles to the classroom, work and personal lives.
