Statement of Work

Date	July 28, 2021
Client	Virtual KEDC Special Education Summer Institute
Job Name	Professional Development Workshop

Summary

The half-day workshop will include: Can't Do or Won't Do? Solving Classroom Challenges Using Positive Reinforcement & Executive Functioning Skill Building

The goal for all general education and special education students is to be learning, engaged, and independent. Begin this process by identifying each learning and behavioral challenge as a Can't Do or Won't Do. Is the work or work process beyond your child's skill level or is the motivation to complete the task not there? Explore learning obstacles by improving executive functioning skills and adapting academic work. Add a proactive element to your behavior management system by implementing positive reinforcement to increase positive behaviors within your class. This session is jam packed with ready to use strategies for general education and special education classrooms.

Audience Objectives:

- Learner will be able to identify and discriminate between learning obstacles that require improvements on skills or additional reinforcement.
- Learner will identify and utilize positive reinforcement to increase positive behaviors.
- Learner will be able to create, setup, and implement interventions to increase independence and communication.
- Learner will be able to identify skill gaps and creating coordinating academic interventions.
