How to Achieve Maximum Success in the School and Classroom

Harry K. Wong, Teacher/Author/Consultant

Rosemary T. Wong, Teacher/Author/Consultant

Chelonnda Seroyer, Teacher/Author/Consultant

Synopsis

Every teacher wants to have an effective classroom where students do their work, are responsible, and exhibit comprehension and achievement. For over 25 year Harry and Rosemary have been teaching teachers how to be an effective teacher. Their techniques will be explained and demonstrated with the added bonus that they can be implemented at no cost and without further inservicing.

Chelonnda Seroyer is an example of an effective teacher. Together with the Wong's, they will explain and show how to minimize behavior problems, increase student engagement time, and maximize high-level student success.

These techniques have been adapted by tens of thousands of teachers for success in their classrooms, which explains why the Wong's are the most sought after speakers in education today.
