

How to Be an Effective and Successful Teacher

Featuring

Dr. Harry K. Wong with

Dr. Rosemary T. Wong and Chelonnda Seroyer

In this one-day training, Harry and Rosemary Wong, along with Chelonnda Seroyer, demonstrate what effective teachers can do to improve student achievement. The professional development features common sense, research-based, non-controversial basic information, along with techniques used by effective teachers, all shared in an entertaining, easy-to-implement format.

About the Presenters

Harry and Rosemary Wong are teachers. Harry is a native of San Francisco and taught middle school and high school science. Rosemary is a native of New Orleans and taught K-8, including working as the school media coordinator and student activity director.

Harry Wong has been called “Mr. Practicality” for his common sense, user-friendly, no-cost approach to managing a classroom for high-level student success. Over a million teachers worldwide have heard his message. Rosemary was chosen as one of California’s first mentor teachers and has been awarded the Silicon Valley Distinguished Woman of the Year Award. She was also honored as a Distinguished Alumnus from her alma mater, Southeastern Louisiana University in Hammond, Louisiana.

Chelonnda Seroyer is the brightest new star on the education speaker scene. Teachers will be empowered to use practical management techniques that will enable them to immediately transform their classrooms so stress levels are decreased and instructional time is maximized.

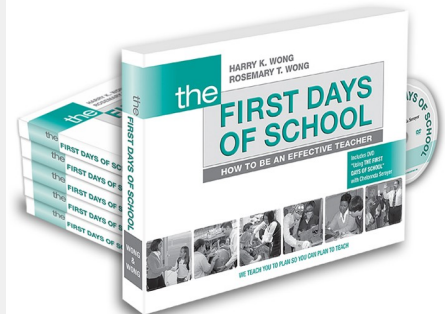

An outstanding professional development opportunity for all classroom teachers, administrators, and instructional coaches.
