Creating Strategic Readers: Strategies for all Readers

This professional development opportunity is designed for all Kentucky school administrators, reading coaches, district curriculum supervisors, regular education classroom teachers, as well as, English as a second language (ESL) teachers, Title I teachers, and K-12 special education teachers.

Valerie Ellery
National Board Certified Educator, Curriculum Specialist, Mentor, Consultant/Staff Developer, Reading Coach, and Author. Valerie Ellery has dedicated her professional career to the field of Literacy. Her book Creating Strategic Readers: Techniques for Developing Competencies in Phonological Awareness, Phonics, Fluency, Vocabulary, and Comprehension received the February 2005 International Reading Association book club selection honor and is currently one of IRA’s best sellers. Ms. Ellery earned her Master’s in Reading K-12 from the University of South Florida. Her staff development offers innovative, interactive, and motivating techniques to engage the participants with relevant research and practical application. She is truly passionate about educating all children, parents, teachers, and administrators on creating strategic readers.

Presenter: Valerie Ellery
Location and Date:
Ashland, Kentucky: KEDC Conference Room
February 21, 2012 (9 am – 4 pm)
Cost: $ 50.00 per participant

The Kentucky Educational Development Corporation is pleased to announce a regional, one day professional development opportunity, “Creating Strategic Readers”, conducted by Valerie Ellery. Participants at this event will learn and practice research proven strategies and techniques for developing competency in all five essential components of reading instruction as identified by the National Reading Panel.

The conference will be held from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. A continental breakfast and box lunch will be provided to all participants. One hundred spaces are available for the one day conference. Registration is on a first come, first served basis and includes a copy of Ms. Ellery’s Creating Strategic Readers book.

Registration can be completed online at http://www.kedc.org/ through February 17th